

Hi there!

As you might be aware, A Mind of Your Own has just relocated to our new space in Findon.

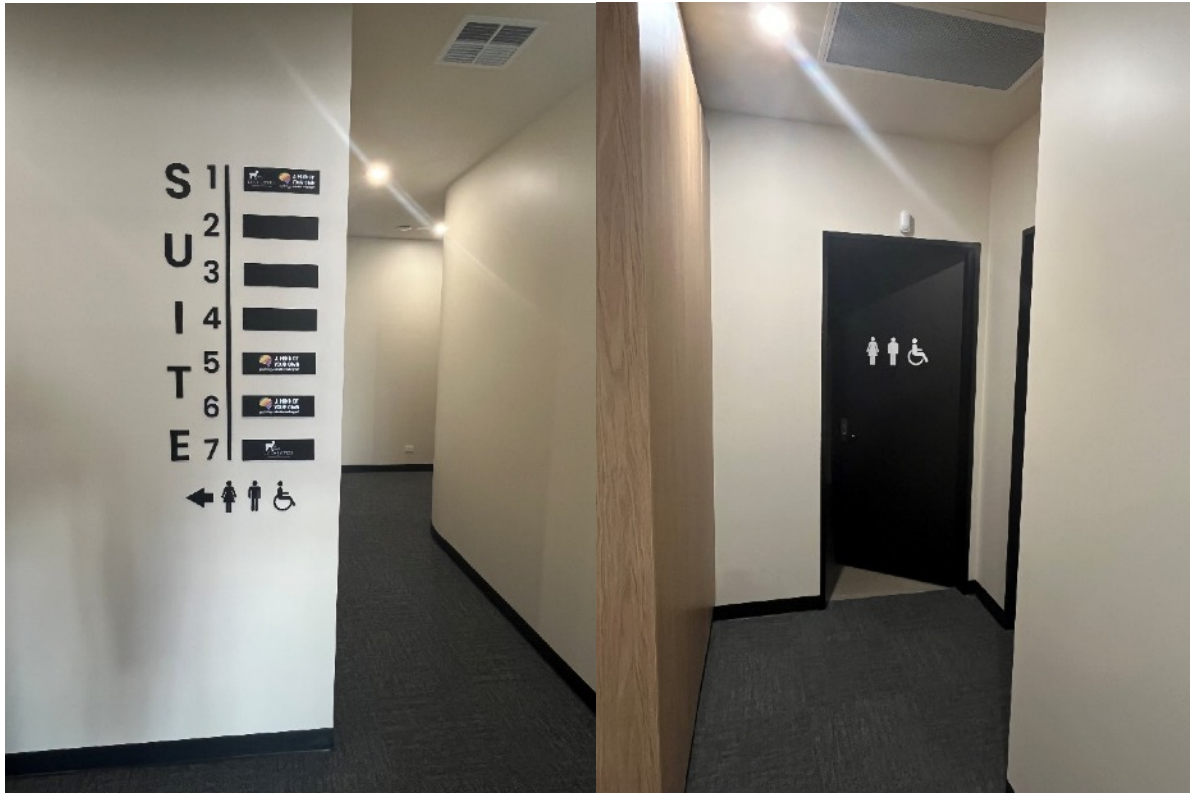

Here is where you can park!

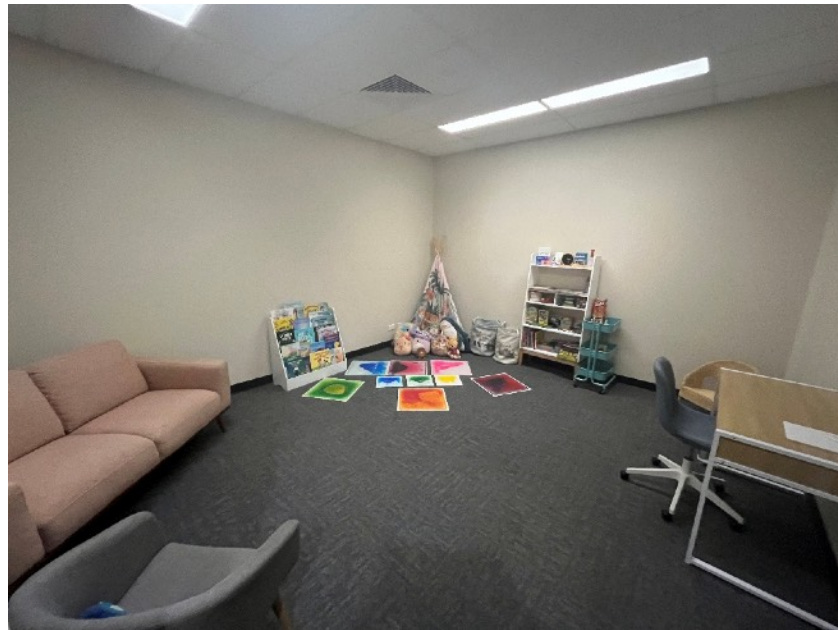

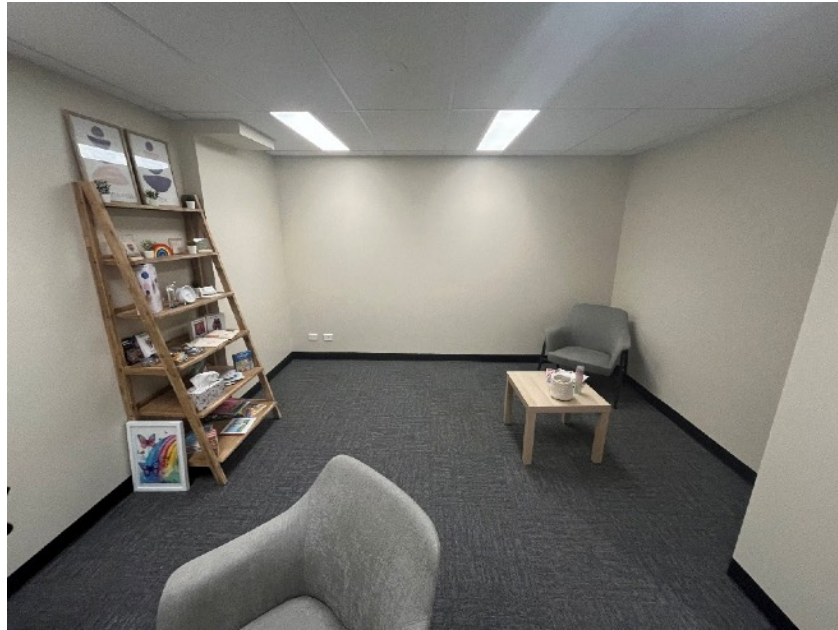

This is where you can enter (middle door)!

This is where you can wait before your appointment (and relax)!

The bathrooms are on the left!

These are the new consult rooms. Don't worry, there will be more interesting things to fill them up soon!

With all of the same faces!
